Where Does Barber Leave Off And Beauty Specialist Begin?

PORTLAND, OREGON, May 3.—(By the United Press)—Protestant jealousy of barbers caused Hilda Jensen, beauty parlor proprietor, to be haled into court today, because she bobbed a customer's hair without a barber's license. The trial nearly ended in a riot when Hilda's attorney demanded of Mrs. Olive Ruch, the customer: "Did you get a shave?" The lawyer presented the argument that a barber shaves or trims a beard, the word being derived from the Latin word "barbus," meaning whiskers. Mrs. Ruch, however, shivered with rage. "No," she stizzled in reply to the attorney's question. Whereupon the defense moved for a dismissal. The court, however, appeared to be hazy on Latin or something. It ordered the case to proceed to its conclusion and today was deciding the question of where a barber leaves off and beauty specialist begins.

Methodists Condemn Klan Methods

SPRINGFIELD, MASS., May 3.—(By the United Press)—A resolution condemning the Ku Klux Klan and its methods, was adopted at the annual conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church here today. The resolution was proposed by Rev. Robert N. Hayes, of the Central Missouri Conference.

Score Smith Of New York SPRINGFIELD, MASS., May 3.—(By the United Press)—Candidates of Governor Al Smith of New York, came in for a scolding at the 34th quadrennial conference of Methodist Episcopal Church resumed here today. Smith, if he should be elected, would prove untrue to his oath of office, Rev. Clarence True Wilson, secretary of the church board of temperance and public morals, said in an address urging strict enforcement of the anti-liquor laws. Wilson recalled both Governor Smith and President Butler, of Columbia University, for their views on prohibition. The secretary accused Butler of presidential aspirations and said that the president-elect cannot be preserved in alcohol. Governor William E. Sweet, Colorado, Democrat, told the conference came for corruption in Washington would be placed on blind acceptance of his leadership by the people.

COOLIDGE FAVORS THE EXCLUSION OF THE JAPS

WASHINGTON, D. C., May 3.—(By the Associated Press)—President Coolidge's effort to postpone the effective date of Asiatic exclusion legislation is based solely on a desire to deal courteously with Japan and he has no objection to enactment of the provisions of the law which would bar aliens ineligible to citizenship. The executive endorsement of the law was made clear at the White House yesterday when the senate and house conferees appointed to adjust the differences in the measures took up the Asiatic exclusion provisions in a three-hour discussion. The conferees agreed to postpone the effective date of the law until the next session of congress in an effort to get a report on the bill early next week. No Funds—Schools Close AMHERST—Public schools here and in Hamilton district close a month in honor of account of lack of funds to pay salaries of teachers.

PENSION BILL VETOED BY PRESIDENT COOLIDGE

WASHINGTON, D. C., May 3.—(By the Associated Press)—President Coolidge today vetoed the Bursum pension bill. The veto was based on the ground of economy, the executive holding that the measure would entail an unwarranted drain on the treasury. Senator Bursum, Republican, New Mexico, author of the bill, announced that an early effort would be made to pass the measure over the veto. He said he thought there would be enough votes in both the senate and the house. (Continued on Page Two)

Judge Foley May Succeed Tammany

NEW YORK, May 3.—(By the Associated Press)—Surrogate Judge A. Foley may succeed his father-in-law, the late Charles F. Murphy, as leader of Tammany. If he will resign the bench, the New York Times says. Agreement upon the selection of Mr. Foley is said to have been reached in conferences of influential members of Tammany. The election is expected at a meeting of the executive committee Wednesday.

Japs Arrested Taking Pictures

NEWPORT, R. I., May 3.—(By the Associated Press)—Three Japanese observed taking photographs of Fort Adams and Newport Harbor have been arrested. The men have been taken from them. The film will be developed. No effort was made to detain the trio but their names were taken and they left the city for New York after being released.

CONTEMPT PROCEEDINGS AGAINST STAR WITNESS PROPOSED BY WALSH

WASHINGTON, D. C., May 3.—(By the Associated Press)—Contempt proceedings against Blair Coan, one of the star witnesses in the senate's investigation of the indictment of Senator Wheeler, were suggested in the senate today by Senator Walsh, of Montana, proponent of the bill. The proposal was based on reports that Coan had claimed to have uncovered evidence in Montana warranting Senator Walsh's indictment. "This is a perfectly plain and flagrant contempt of the senate," said Senator Walsh, "not only on his part but by every one responsible for his actions. It was calculated to intimidate senators in their work on the investigating committee."

"Any action by senators on this side of the chamber might not be attributed to me, but to the committee as a whole. I fear, to motives to preserve the dignity and honor of this body. I trust such action may be taken by senators on the other (Republican) side of the chamber."

Bandits Cut Man's Throat

CINCINNATI, O., May 3.—(By the Associated Press)—Search was being made today for two negro bandits who killed John E. Temple, 33, here last night. Temple's throat was slashed with a razor when he resisted robbery. The blade severed the jugular vein and he expired in an automobile patrol while being rushed to a hospital.

Indians Saw Martin's Plane Over Lagoon

INDIANS SAW MARTIN CORDOVA, ALASKA, May 3.—(By the United Press)—First word of Major Martin and Alva Harvey since they hoped off from Chignik to Dutch Harbor has come from Alaskan Indians living at the head of Chignik Lagoon. They saw his plane flying over Lagoon Wednesday. This strengthens the belief that Major Martin altered his course and instead of following the coast took the overland route across the peninsula.

Other Flyers To Continue Trip

WASHINGTON, May 3.—(By the United Press)—"Carry On." This word went out today to the three army flyers waiting for Major Martin. Martin, however, is probably out of the flight for good. The other flyers will go on without him, according to word sent by Major General Patrick, chief of the Air Service. President Coolidge is keeping informed on the search for Martin, but will not call off the world flight.

Portuguese Flyers Here Held Up

KARACHI, INDIA, May 3.—(By the United Press)—Portugal's long distance effort is held up at Bender Abbas by unfavorable weather, according to reports here today. The two Portuguese, who left Lisbon several weeks ago, are enroute to Messau. They were flying to Charhar when forced to land at Bender Abbas yesterday because of bad weather.

Frenchman Overtakes Britisher

AGRA, INDIA, May 3.—(By the Associated Press)—Lieutenant Velleter Doyle, French aviator, flying from Paris to Tokyo, arrived at 1:30 p. m., having made the 1,200 kilometers from Karachi, British India, in less than seven hours despite fog and torrid heat. He expects to continue his flight to Calcutta tomorrow. The French aviator today overtook "Stuart" McLaren, the British round-the-worlder, who has been delayed at the Northern Indian town of Farid because of motor trouble.

Natives Saw Major Martin

FALSE PASS, ALASKA, May 3.—(By the Associated Press)—As a result of information from natives scattered along the Barren Alaskan peninsula that they saw Major Martin and Alva Harvey, who have been missing since Wednesday morning, headed northwestward in the direction of Chignik Lakes and the Bering Sea, wireless calls were broadcast today to all vessels in that northern body of water and additional parties were organized to search the Rocky Bering Sea shore. While government ships and cannery boats continued combing the southwestern shores of the Aleutian Islands and the Alaska peninsula for Major Martin, commander of the United States Army Around-The-World Flight, his three companions awaiting him at Dutch Harbor, Unalaska Island, were prepared today to continue their journey if weather conditions permitted. The next scheduled stop for the three was Alaska Island, 350 miles southwest of where they were stationed. Orders were telegraphed to them yesterday from Washington, D. C., to speed westward and not wait for their command. King Cove sailed today to continue from King Cove. That vessels had searched unsuccessfully for Major Martin and his mechanic, Staff Sergeant Alva Harvey, in two harbors and five bays. Overland searching groups from Chignik returned late yesterday without any definite trace of the American aviators.

"Thousands of Dollars" Go Up In Smoke

WASHINGTON, D. C., May 3.—(By the Associated Press)—The handwork of a thousand counterfeiters went up in smoke today at the treasury. A committee of treasury officials following the regular procedure solemnly carried bundles after bundles of bogus bills to the great incinerators of the treasury. The face value or paper amounted to about a quarter of a million dollars, but their worth was nil in the eyes of the law. It was the day for the annual destruction of all counterfeit money, plates, dies, paraphernalia and materials seized in the last 12 months by the United States Secret Service that was not retained for evidence in court cases. All that could be chewed in pieces in the unaccepting machinery and then burned, was so treated while the metals were cut to pieces with sledge, chisel and anvil and then melted into a shapeless mass to be sold for junk. While Secret Service officials declined to discuss exact details of their work in the last year, it was known that their net had encompassed a few more than one thousand persons, only a small number of whom escaped conviction and terms in prison. The raids netted anywhere from a few hundred dollars to fifty thousand and the denominations of the bills taken ranged from one to one hundred.

U. S. To Sell Arms To Cuban Government

WASHINGTON, D. C., May 3.—(By the Associated Press)—The Cuban government, facing a "condition of violence" in Santa Clara Province caused by revolutionists, has applied to the Washington government for the purchase of a considerable amount of arms and ammunition for the Zayas forces against the revolutionists. The appeal today was approved by the state department and forwarded to the war department where it is regarded as certain that the arms and ammunition asked for will be made available to Cuban authorities without delay.

Historical Bank To Be Absorbed

LONDON, May 3.—(By the Associated Press)—Child and Company, the oldest private bank in England and perhaps in the world is to be absorbed by Citicorp, Citicorp and Company, in accordance with the will of the eighth earl of Jersey, senior partner, who died on December 31. Child's Bank was founded about the year 1560, has operated on the site of its present offices in Fleet street since, and is full of historic associations. Oliver Cromwell, Samuel Pepys, Horace Walpole, the poet, Dryden, Charles II, and his famous parliament, Lord Gwynne, were among the many prominent persons who had accounts at the bank which is identical with "Talisman" in Dickens' "Tale of Two Cities."

The latest balance sheet of Child and Company showed deposits of 3,000,000 pounds. Combined with Citicorp they will exceed 30,000,000 pounds.

Will Postpone Wheeler Trial

GREAT FALLS, MONT., May 3.—(By the Associated Press)—Assignment of Federal Judge George M. Bourquin to Seattle during May and the resulting postponement of the trial of Senator B. K. Wheeler, Montana junior senator, who was indicted here by a United States grand jury April 8, according to an announcement by the district attorney's office. Senator Wheeler's case originated in the Great Falls division of the Montana federal court district and can be transferred to the other divisions only upon a court order. Such transfers are not made except for cause and court officials are no likelihood of the Wheeler case being heard at any place other than Great Falls.

A court decision in Easton, Mass., has given to Alice Elizabeth Kinsman a fortune of half a million dollars and, at the same time, established her legally as daughter of the late Albert Kinsman, manufacturer. After separation from his first wife Kinsman refused to recognize his daughter and, upon his death, litigation ensued. News of her good fortune doesn't excite the 10-year-old heiress a bit. She says she'll give herself a good education and will try to buy some ice cream sodas for her "gang."

Keynote Song For Democrats

NEW YORK, May 3.—(By the Associated Press)—A keynote song is to be a feature of the National Democratic convention. It is being written by Irving Berlin. Miss Elizabeth Marbury, member of the national committee and chairman of a committee on arrangements for caring for women visitors, in revealing plans for the song, said: "Personally, I think that if the song is as good as Mr. Berlin can write, it will be as important as the keynote speech."

Prohibition and Religion Two Big Issues Democrats To Have On Hands at Their Convention

BY DAVID LAWRENCE (Copyright, 1924.) WASHINGTON, May 3.—The certainty that President Coolidge will be nominated on the Republican ticket has turned political discussion here almost entirely to the Democratic race, interest in which in the last few days, has become intensified through the activities of those favoring Governor Al Smith of New York. The growing strength of McAdoo in several states had been puzzling to the professional politicians of both parties who have assumed that he was already eliminated because he served as a corporation lawyer and (Continued on Page Three)

Chamber of Commerce To Open Convention

CLEVELAND, O., May 3.—(By the Associated Press)—Directors of the chamber of commerce of New York State met here today in the first meeting preliminary to the twelfth annual convention of the national chamber which opens here Tuesday morning. The directors will complete the program and decide upon matters suggested for convention discussion. Secretary Herbert Hoover will address the convention, the date to be set, convention officials announced. Secretary of the Navy Curtis D. Wilbur will speak Tuesday night. Brigadier General Herbert M. Lord, director of the budget, and Sir Esme Howard, British ambassador, will address the same meeting.

War To Knife In English Politics

LONDON, May 3.—(By the Associated Press)—Members of the liberal party today made no effort to conceal their anger over the rejection in the house of commons yesterday of the proposal for a national representation electoral bill, which they declared was due to the ill-digger action of about 50 laborites. The laborites themselves made no secret of this resentment. The liberal newspapers today are bitter in their comment, implying that when the budget, which the liberals will support, is disposed of, it will be war to the knife between the two parties.

FAILURE TO ENFORCE DRY REGULATIONS THE REASON

COLUMBUS, O., May 3.—(By the Associated Press)—As the culmination of several weeks of intense and sometimes dramatic hearing, Governor Donahey today officially removed C. C. Curtis as mayor of Canton, and his brother, E. E. Curtis, as safety director. Both were relieved of office on the grounds of misconduct in office, gross neglect of duty and of misfeasance, non-feasance and malfeasance, and willful neglect to enforce prohibition laws. They were suspended 30 days ago by Donahey.

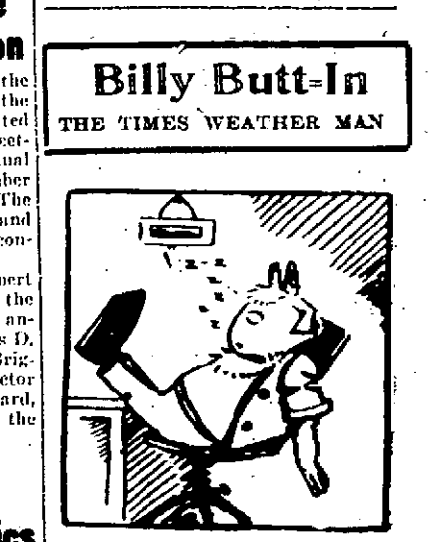

E. E. Curtis, however, was removed from a position from which the acting head of Canton's city government had discharged him. Thus while the executive order relieved him of the office of safety director of Canton, he held no office. Charles Ball, who became acting mayor upon C. C. Curtis' suspension, shortly thereafter discharged E. E. Curtis, whose hearing, before the governor, however, did not end until this week.

A grand jury investigation of the Curtis administration was recommended by the governor, who unsparingly cited C. C. Curtis. "The situation fairly reeks with conspiracies, protection and bribery," Donahey said. "In justice to the citizens of Canton and for the promotion of honest law enforcement, a thorough grand jury investigation should be brought about." "There is no escape from the conclusion that the said Mayor C. C. Curtis has been proved guilty of the charges filed against him."

Both Curtis hearings before the governor were conducted by special grand jury. Two witnesses, both of whom admitted they had given perjured testimony before the Stark county grand jury in an investigation of E. E. Curtis, testified they had paid the safety director money for protection of bootleggers and gamblers. One of these witnesses also testified that the then safety director conspired with him to murder a minister who had been active against bootleggers. The murder charge, however, was not substantiated by any other witness. One witness for the defense declared threats to kill him had been made after he had testified.

CATHAL O'BYRNE (above), poet and singer of Gaelic folk songs, arises, in his saffron kilt, to take a sham at his Scottish kinsmen. It was from Ireland, he says, that the Scots got their language, their bagpipes, their legendary lore. The brooch (below) which he wears is a relic of the Eighth Century.

CINDERELLA HAS A RIVAL in this young Parisienne. Vera Olcott has won a prize at the French capital for possessing the smallest and most shapely feet in a contest which attracted hundreds of girls. In the picture above, Vera seems to be showing the greater part of her feet.

TRY THIS ONE, FELLERS, on your coasters! It's a real sport, and the best thing about it is that nobody has to push. Here you see Charlie Sherber of Lynn, Mass., making a good heat before a steady breeze. "It's even better than a sailboat," says the youthful skipper.

FEEVISH LEGISLATORS CAN'T SCARE Congressman Roy O. Woodruff of Michigan simply by baring their teeth. Woodruff was a dentist and practiced his profession for 10 years before coming to Congress. "I can jerk 32 teeth while the second hand of a watch is going once around the dial," says Woodruff. "I call that some record."

FROM ALL OVER THE WORLD they come to view this scene. It is Mount Rainier, seen from Mirror Lake, in west central Washington. Mount Rainier is a national park with an area of 334 square miles. The mountain has 28 glaciers that are 50 to 600 feet thick. Hundreds of tourists from all parts of the country make daily pilgrimages to the spot.

HE GOES "ON LOCATION" whenever he paints a picture. Alberto Martinez, Indian painter, puts a strange, exotic spirit into his art that has attracted widespread attention. When he paints, he is completely absorbed in his work and allows no outside influence to distract him, as this picture shows.

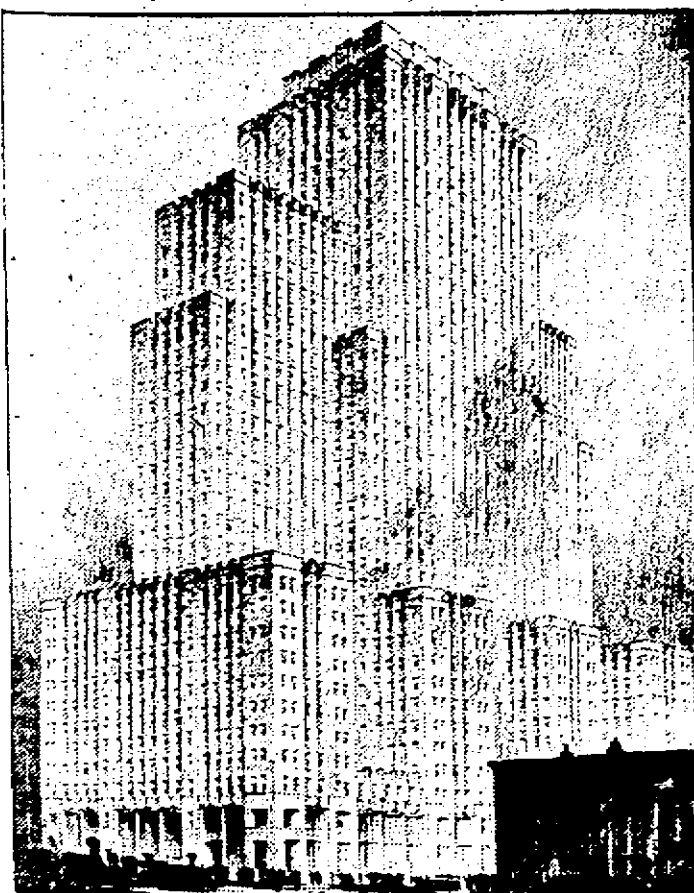

GUESS AGAIN. IT ISN'T OPIUM. It's merely the Chinese way of enjoying a cool smoke in the evening after the work is done. The picture shows the Chinese water pipe in operation with Chinese tobacco, and not the harmful opium, as fuel.

HE'S TAKING A LOT OF PULL to get John Harvard back into college, even though he is the university's founder. College authorities decided that the famous statue should occupy a more conspicuous place than behind Memorial Hall, so it is being moved right into the college yard. Incidentally, the statue really is not of Harvard himself, there having been no picture or likeness of the man. The statue represents the spirit of the school.

"BORN DANCER," like all American girls, is the way Michel Folome, well-known ballet master, describes 16-year-old Helene Denon, his star pupil. Little Miss Denon has been touring Canada and Cuba in a new series of dances.

THE WORLD'S LARGEST OFFICE BUILDING, to be built in New York, is illustrated here from the architect's drawing. The building will contain considerably more floor space than its two nearest competitors—the Equitable Building in New York and the General Motors Building in Detroit.

"LEAPING DANGER," A GALLANT white-faced chestnut, has been called the real star of David Wark Griffith's "America." Next to him comes his rider, Harry O'Neil, who for his "Ride of Paul Revere" is given equal ranking, at least, with such horsemen as Tom Mix and Bill Hart.

THIS IS REAL SPORT if your equestrian experience isn't limited to stuffed ponies on a county fair merry-go-round. "Cowboy Dick" Melnick of Richmond, Calif., likes 'em with all four feet off the ground—like "Joe," in the picture above.

TENNIS MARVEL is "Sandy" Weiner, the 16-year-old Philadelphia boy who has been taken under the wing of Bill Tilden because the champion believes that some day the boy will fill his shoes as national title-holder. Tilden and his protegee have played together all over the country.

PERU SENDS HIM to represent her interests in the United States. One of the newest faces in diplomatic circles at Washington is Dr. Hernan Velarde, ambassador from Peru, who has long been prominent in public affairs in the Latin Americas.

Profit Taking Causes Abrupt Decline In Foreign, Domestic Bonds

Average	Saturday	Friday	bond trading, although a wave of selling taking caused abroad declines in a few foreign and domestic issues. Serbian 8's, after selling at a new 1924 price of 92½, earlier this week, sagged 2 points to below 80, and Bo-lytan failed to hold yesterday's three point gain. Wilson and company 7½s with a drop of almost three points again duplicated the year's low fig-	ure, and heaviness developed in Paul and Scabard loans. Independent strength, however, was shown by Pere Marquette 5's, Ajax Rubber 6's and Wilson first 6's. Trading was quiet in the United States government list, the treasury 4½s, which achieved a new high record at 102, followed the reduction in the bank rate, so today 40-52nds show that figure.

Freight Reduction on Limestone
The local Farm Bureau has received notice from the Ohio Farm Bureau Federation that they have obtained a freight reduction on limestone for agricultural purposes to Minford, Greengarden and Stockdale on the C. and O. Northern in this county. The Farm Bureau, after long, persistent efforts, are gratified to get the announcement of this reduction which becomes effective May 15th. Estimating the amount of limestone shipped to Minford from the Basic Products Co. at Kenova, W. Va., at 600 tons per year the reduction will mean a saving to the farmers of the Minford community of $150 a year. To the Stockdale and Greengarden communities on this same estimated amount the saving will reach a yearly total of $875. Local Man Writes on Dairy Co.

Question
The following article was written by Corwin Knowles, manager of the Washington Jersey farm, on "Why Jerseys for Scioto County?"

"The Jersey cow has always been famous as a producer of butterfat, but unjustly criticized as a milk producer. The best producers of the Jersey breed today will make upwards of 16,000 pounds of milk (2,000 gallons) per year. Scioto county does not have sufficiently large enough population to cause a serious milk shortage. The city of Portsmouth has practically the only demand for market milk. In the cities the people are gradually learning the value of more butterfat in the milk they use. Already several Eastern cities have raised the butterfat standard requirement from 3.5 per cent to 4 per cent. A premium for higher testing milk is being paid all over the country. Future dairy development in this county must needs be toward butterfat production for the making of butter or cream for ice cream. The Jersey cow cannot be surpassed in the economical production of butterfat. The cream usually carries a high color and sells to a better advantage. Already in this county a very large per cent of the dairy cows are grade Jerseys. They have shown that they are probably the best adapted to this climate of any dairy breed. Since a large per cent of the dairy cattle in the county are carrying the Jersey blood, it will be far easier to develop higher producing grade bulls (not pure-bred scrub bulls—there are such in all breeds). The results of the use of good Jersey bulls in the herds in this county would make the cattle more uniform and better producers and, would in time, attract buyers from all over the country. This has been proved by Belmont county, which has a wonderful reputation for its cattle. Another item in favor of the Jersey cow is that the percent of tuberculosis in cattle in the United States is less in the Jersey breed than in any other dairy breed, and is almost one fourth as much as that in the Holstein breed, where the tuberculosis is highest. Jerseys are undoubtedly more resistant to tuberculosis than any other breed."

Jerseys are the earliest maturing cattle of any breed as has been proved before the eyes of the world by a cow in our own county. They are also the longest lived economical producer of any breed.

There is a large group of men in our own county who are boasting hard for the Jersey breed which is a point in favor of making it easier to get good Jerseys and to make this a Jersey county. By far the greatest number of registered dairy cattle in the county are Jerseys.

Above all, every county should standardize the breed of cattle so as to create a name for the county to attract outside buyers to take up the surplus stock at good prices. A Place for Soy Beans
Hundreds of acres of clover and alfalfa have been seriously injured and in many cases ruined in Scioto county as a result of the past open, cold winter. This means a shortage of legume hay in the county this year unless a substitute crop is used to supplant the short crop in clover and alfalfa hay. It has been the experience of dozens of farmers in this county that soy beans is the crop to grow when the clover or alfalfa crop will not supply their needs for roughage feeds. This is particularly true with dairy and sheep farmers.

Farm management records of Scioto County farms show that the men who are feeding heavily of legume roughages grown on their own farms are the ones who get the highest returns from the livestock and at the same time increasing, rather than diminishing, the fertility of their soil. The same records show that such a practice is economical as reflected in the labor incomes of the farmers following such practices. The soy bean is a comparative new crop in Ohio, and though the mechanical phases of its culture have not been standardized, its general culture is fairly well understood.

A good seed bed for soybeans is often described as being one suitable for corn. It is quite essential that the ground be well worked down with only a shallow layer of mellow soil on top. A soil that is too soft is conducive to deep sowing which is fatal to a good stand. When soy beans are grown on ground for the first time, it is best to inoculate the seed. The time of planting depends upon the use to which they are put and the convenience of getting the seed bed prepared. They may be planted in Southern Ohio any time after the ground warms up in the spring, which may be as early as the first of May, though of this year. However the usual time is after corn planting, but not later than the first of June. In the case where the soybeans are grown with the corn for silage or hogging down. The usual time for seeding in Scioto county is from May 20 to June 20, although good results have been obtained when seeded as late as the first of July. If sown late, an early maturing variety should be planted. Some farmers prefer an early maturing variety for hay such as Mammoth, even though they plant in May or early in June because it is ready to harvest early in the season when the conditions for curing hay are good. When planting at any time and especially in the early season, it is imperative to avoid planting deep. Sufficient depth to insure moisture and covering is advisable, and in any case not more than one inch or one and one half inches. If the crop is sown with a grain drill on soft spring plowed ground, the implement may sink in considerably and the result will be sowing too deeply. This may be prevented by tying or strapping the lift lever in such a manner as to prevent the shoes or disks from sinking too far into the soil. Soy beans may be broadcasted, drilled solid, drilled in rows to be cultivated or planted in corn. The manner of planting depends somewhat on the use to which the crop is to be put and the condition of the soil. When planted for hay the most common practice is to drill solid at the rate of 1 1/2 to 2 bushels of medium sized beans, or 1 1/2 to 1 3/4 bushels of smaller varieties to the acre. When sown in rows to be cultivated 1 1/2 bushel is the usual amount used by Scioto county farmers. When planted in corn for silage, the most profitable rate is three soy bean plants per foot with corn at the usual rate. This rate requires about 1 1/2 bushel per acre of the medium sized variety. For hogging this rate should be cut nearly in half. The grain drill is the implement most used in sowing soy beans. With this machine the crop may be sown solid or in rows by allowing all or only certain holes to feed. The latter may be accomplished by tucking in or carding over the holes which are not to sow. In a double feed drill the sowing openings should be used. Using a Winch drill in this way, rows may be sown 21, 28 and 35 inches apart. A ten shoe drill will thus sow three rows 28 inches apart at once.

Should a crust form before the plants are up, a corrugated roller or cultipacker is useful for break the crust. A light harrow may be used to an advantage before the plants are up and again before they are 8 inches tall, but should not be used just as the plants are coming up as they are brittle and easily killed at that time. Harrowing after plants are up is best done crosswise of the rows during the warmest part of the May when the plants are not brittle. When the crop is sown in rows, a corn cultivator of some sort is the best equipment. While the beans are quite small the weeds should be kept down rigorously. But after the crop begins to shade the ground, weeds have little chance to grow. Usually two cultivations are sufficient.

ALL ON THE MOVE

THE labor government of England proposes to remove the tariff on automobiles. The admitted purpose of this is to give Englishmen opportunity to acquire cheap American cars more cheaply.

It rather mocks all ideas of protection, this admittance that Europe with its "pauper labor" is not able to cope with America in the manufacture of automobiles, more especially of the least costly kind. Also it is evident the government that is controlled by labor sees no menace to home industry in making the breach in this inactivity still wider. Or it may be, it is yielding to a spirit in this country, which holds every man is as good as another and this can be most conclusively shown in the universal ownership of a car. Anywise the flivver goes rushing over everything regardless and considers the near day when it will be as omnipresent in the British Isles, at least, as it is in the land of its inception, and that certainly will be going some in more ways than one.
